

JOHN RICARD

510 NW 84th Ave. #240

Plantation, FL 33324

H 954.424.6367

C 941.567.9131

me@johnricard.info

www.johnricard.info

Education

- Master of Arts in Classical Languages - Summer 2004
Florida State University, Tallahassee, FL
- Bachelor of Arts in the History of Art - Spring 2001
Florida State University, Tallahassee, FL

Professional Experience

January 2011 – Present

Instructor and Consultant, Somerset Virtual Academy

- 2011 courses: Latin I, World Geography, World History, World History Honors (web-based courses)
 - Also contributed consultation on the development of Somerset Virtual Academy

July 2009 – Present

Teacher, Somerset Academy at Chapel Trail

- 2010-11 courses: M/J Latin Beginning, Latin I, Latin II, AP Art History, AP European History
 - Founded National Junior Classical League chapter at Somerset
 - Sponsor for National Junior Honor Society
 - Planned trips abroad to Italy (summer 2012) and Turkey and Greece (summer 2013)
 - Awarded funding to attend Rome In Situ 2011 workshop in Italy
- 2009-10 courses: M/J Latin Beginning, Latin I, AP Art History, Art History, World Geography, U.S. History
 - Department Chair for Foreign Languages (2009-10)
 - Founded the Latin program at Somerset Academy
 - Teacher of the Year candidate (2009-10)

August 2007 – June 2009

Teacher, Doctors Charter School of Miami Shores

- 2008-09 courses: Introduction to Foreign Languages: Latin, Latin I, Latin II, Latin III
 - Led students on a 12-day summer tour of Italy and Greece
 - EESAC President for Doctors Charter School
- 2007-08 courses: Introduction to Foreign Languages: Latin, Latin I
 - Founded the Archaeology Club, dedicated to educating students about the importance of archaeology and the study of ancient cultures through their material remains while also organizing several field trips to local museums
 - Organized and led a 10-day summer tour of Italy
 - Founded and sponsored the Internet Design and Media Club, allowing students the opportunity to design, construct, and administrate web sites while working on several projects including building the school newspaper's web site and constructing other school club sites
 - Administered the National Latin Exam
 - Planned and managed Nox Latina, a program-wide production that allowed students to create projects and compete for prizes as well as produce several plays for the Latin program
 - Created Romae.org as a tool to support Latin coursework as well as to provide an outlet to explore other interests students may have in the field of classical studies

July 2008 - August 2008

Crew Member, Excavations at Campo della Fiera in Orvieto, Italy

September 2003 - August 2004

Graduate Teaching Assistant, Florida State University

- 2003-2004 courses: Ancient Mythology East and West, Gender and Society in Ancient Greece (web-based course)

May 2001 - August 2003 (seasonal)

Trench Supervisor, Florida State University, Excavations at Poggio Collo delle Civitelle, Italy

Presentations and Conferences

- Rome In Situ 2011
American Classical League

- Rome, Italy (2011)
- AP Annual Conference 2011
College Board
San Francisco, CA (2011)
- Cambridge Latin Teachers' Weekend Workshop
North American Cambridge Classics Project
Atlanta, GA (2008)
- "Ancient Greek Love Magic and the Anatomy of Reason"
Classical Association of the Middle West and South
University of Wisconsin, Madison, WI (2005)
- "What's Eating You? Hepatoscopy in Etruria and the Near East"
Etruscans and the Others Conference, Istituto di Studi Etruschi ed Italici [U.S. Section]
New York, NY (2004)
- "Tiberius Gracchus: Idealist Martyr or Revolutionary?"
Florida State Graduate Symposium
Florida State University, Tallahassee, FL (2003)
- "Prescribing the Soul: Plato on the Soul and Medicine"
Classical Association of the Middle West and South
University of Kentucky, Lexington, KY (2003)

Professional Affiliations

- American Philological Association
- Classical Association of the Middle West and South
- American Institute of Archaeology
- American Classical League

Activities

- Commissioned to write AP Art History practice exam for Marilyn Stokstad, Art History, 4th ed. Volume I, Pearson, New Jersey (2011)
- Coached boys soccer program and established teams for middle school and high school while also acquiring sponsorship to obtain new uniforms and equipment as well as constructing their official web site (2007-2009)

References

References are available upon request.